

Lesson Plan: “Home” Stop-Frame Animation Project

Instructor: Sarah Biagini

Examples of works:

- Tiny Circus Art Collective: “Metamorphosis”
- PEZ: “Western Spaghetti”
- William Kentridge: “Felix in Exile”

Lesson Objective: Collaborating with the language arts department, students will create short poems related to the project thematic “Home”. They will take these poems and in their animation project groups, cut up the poems and remix them into a single poem that will act as a script to their animation. Students will collaborate to create a short diorama animation that illustrates their personal concept of home.

Skills acquired/developed:

- Critical Thinking
- Creative Writing
- Visual Storytelling
- Video Production